BRINGING HELP TO AFRICA A.S.A.P.

Supporters of the charity ASAP – or African Solutions to African Problems – turned out in force for a fundraising lunch at West London's Louise Blouin Foundation. Entertained by singing and dancing from South African women and children who had flown over especially for the event, the 400 guests enjoyed delicious sandwiches and sushi donated by Pret à Manger and Itsu. The grassroots charity supports local organisations so they can provide food, clean water, education and care for more than 9,000 vulnerable children.
