Luvvie actually

The atmosphere was more village fête than stuffy fundraiser when the great, good and grand attended a lunch at Notting Hill's 20th Century Theatre to learn about ASAP: African Solutions to African Problems (africansolutions.org). With a committee including Annabel Elliot, Liz Ashcombe and Jane Ormsby Gore and guests such as Annabel Goldsmith, Jerry Hall, Bill Nighy and Rupert Everett, it was not surprising the conversation didn't skip a beat when Sienna Miller arrived wearing a red minicape topped with a distressed straw hat. As some of the ASAP orphans – many of whose lives have been saved by the project – sang a cappella, there was much weeping, smiling and clapping from the crowd.
