LULU GUINNESS has joined forces with Paloma Faith, Rob Ryan and Sophie Dahl to create a capsule collection of limited edition bags.

A revival of Guinness' iconic fan bags, each design embodies the personality of its star namesake. The Paloma is encrusted with bold Swarovski crystals, the Sophie with metallic hand embroidery while Rob Ryan's features an artistic portrait of a kissing couple.

Ryan's one of a kind bag, signed by both the artist and Lulu, will be auctioned off to raise money for the African Solutions to African Problems charity - a campaign supporting women caring for orphans and vulnerable children. To be in with a chance of buying this covetable, unique piece go to the label's eBay page from November 8.
